

SAN DIEGO STATE
UNIVERSITY

---

Jessica Rentto

*Associate Vice President of Administration and Title IX Coordinator
San Diego State University*

As the Associate Vice President of Administration, Ms. Rentto develops, recommends and implements University policies and strategies to manage safety, risk, legal and human resource issues facing San Diego State University. Ms. Rentto oversees the Center for Human Resources, Public Safety and University Police, Employee Relations and Compliance, Risk Management and Environmental Health and Safety. Ms. Rentto also acts as SDSU's Title IX Coordinator and is responsible for coordinating the university's efforts to comply with its obligations under Title IX and the Title IX regulations. These responsibilities include coordinating any investigations of complaints received pursuant to Title IX, including complaints of sexual assault and sexual violence, implementing regulations, providing consultation and information regarding Title IX requirements to potential complainants and providing ongoing training, consultation, technical assistance, and information services regarding Title IX requirements, grievance issues, and compliance programs. Ms. Rentto is co-chair of SDSU's Sexual Violence Task Force, a member of SDSU's Budget Resources Advisory Team, chair of the Conflict of Interest in Research committee, and a member of the university's Strategic Planning Group. Ms. Rentto regularly provides trainings to students, faculty and staff on various subjects including employment and labor issues, Title IX, and risk management and legal issues.

Prior to coming to San Diego State University in 2006, Ms. Rentto was a practicing attorney, specializing in discrimination and harassment law. Ms. Rentto graduated from Duke University where she received a Bachelor of Arts in Public Policy Studies and she obtained her Juris Doctorate from University of San Diego School of Law, where she graduated cum laude and Order of the Coif.