

Brad Wells

Associate Vice Chancellor of Business and Finance California State University

Mr. Wells is the Associate Vice Chancellor, Business and Finance for the Office of the Chancellor where he works with the Executive Vice Chancellor and Chief Financial Officer to support campus activities in the areas of budget, accounting, financing, risk management, capital development, and information technology. Prior to returning to the Office of the Chancellor, he was the Vice President, Administration and Finance and Chief Financial Officer for Cal State East Bay, a position. He has an extensive senior level executive background in administration and finance in a variety of settings including private business, non-profit agencies and higher education in the California State University system with experience at both the institutional level and the Chancellor's Office.

Immediately before coming to East Bay Mr. Wells was Senior Vice President of Development for Urban Housing Communities, LLC, based in Santa Ana, CA. Prior to that his experiences include senior leadership roles at The J. Paul Getty Trust, Los Angeles, as Vice President, Finance and Administration, and Associate Director, Program Analysis and Planning. He has over ten years' experience working in several positions with progressively greater responsibility in the Office of the Chancellor of the California State University including: Assistant Vice Chancellor, Financial Services, Executive Assistant to the Vice Chancellor and Chief Financial Officer, Director, Information and Analysis, and Senior Financial Analyst. University institutional experience has included assignments at California State University, Fullerton as Assistant Director, Budget Planning and Administration and Assistant Systems Analyst.

Mr. Wells holds the Bachelor's degree in Political Science from California State University, Long Beach and earned his Master of Science in Education with an option in Educational Technology Leadership from CSU East Bay.