

UCLA Teacher Education Program

Ethnic Studies Pathway

2014

LAUSD
APPROVES ES REQUIREMENT

LAUSD School Board passes resolution requiring all high schools to offer ethnic studies by the 2017-2018 school year and all high school students to take ethnic studies to graduate by 2019

UCLA Teacher Education Program designs ethnic studies pilot pathway for incoming English and Social Studies teacher candidates with content knowledge and expertise in ethnic studies.

2015

UCLA TEP ADMITS
FIRST COHORT OF ES
TEACHERS

139

NEW ETHNIC STUDIES
TEACHERS

By the end of the 2021-2022 academic year, UCLA TEP will have credentialed 139 secondary teachers with an "ethnic studies emphasis," prepared through specialized coursework and student teaching placements

Ethnic Studies teachers from UCLA TEP have been hired in more than 60 schools in LAUSD:
40+ High Schools, 17 Middle Schools, and 4 Span Schools

60+

SCHOOLS IN LAUSD

45

TEACHERS
PARTICIPATE IN ES COURSEWORK

Math, Science, Elementary, and Humanities teacher candidates enrolled in TEP's two-year pathway have participated in the Ethnic Studies Curriculum Building and Pedagogy courses